SENATE BILL No. 233

---

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning taxation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1       SECTION 1. IC 6-8.1-9-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.288-2013,
2       SECTION 69, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
3       JULY 1, 2016]: Sec. 4. (a) Every individual (other than a nonresident)
4       who files an individual income tax return and who is entitled to a
5       refund from the department of state revenue because of the 6       overpayment of income tax for a taxable year may designate on the 7       individual's annual state income tax return that either a specific amount
8       or all of the refund to which the individual is entitled shall be paid over
9       to one (1) or more of the funds described in subsection (c). If the refund
10      to which the individual is entitled is less than the total amount 11      designated to be paid over to one (1) or more of the funds described in 12      subsection (c), all of the refund to which the individual is entitled shall 13      be paid over to the designated funds, but in an amount or amounts
14      reduced proportionately for each designated fund. If an individual
15      designates all of the refund to which the individual is entitled to be paid
16      over to one (1) or more of the funds described in subsection (c) without 17      designating specific amounts, the refund to which the individual is entitled shall be paid over to each fund described in subsection (c) in an amount equal to the refund divided by the number of funds described in subsection (c), rounded to the lowest cent, with any part of the refund remaining due to the effects of rounding to be deposited in the nongame fund.

(b) Every husband and wife (other than nonresidents) who file a joint income tax return and who are entitled to a refund from the department of state revenue because of the overpayment of income tax for a taxable year may designate on their annual state income tax return that either a specific amount or all of the refund to which they are entitled shall be paid over to one (1) or more of the funds described in subsection (c). If the refund to which a husband and wife are entitled is less than the total amount designated to be paid over to one (1) or more of the funds described in subsection (c), all of the refund to which the husband and wife are entitled shall be paid over to the designated funds, but in an amount or amounts reduced proportionately for each designated fund. If a husband and wife designate all of the refund to which the husband and wife are entitled to be paid over to one (1) or more of the funds described in subsection (c) without designating specific amounts, the refund to which the husband and wife are entitled shall be paid over to each fund described in subsection (c) in an amount equal to the refund divided by the number of funds described in subsection (c), rounded to the lowest cent, with any part of the refund remaining due to the effects of rounding to be deposited in the nongame fund.

(c) Designations under subsection (a) or (b) may be directed only to the following funds:

(1) The nongame fund.

(2) The state general fund for exclusive use in funding public education for kindergarten through grade 12.

(3) The military family relief fund.

(d) The instructions for the preparation of individual income tax returns shall contain a description of the purposes of the following:

(1) The nongame and endangered species program. The description of this program shall be written in cooperation with the department of natural resources.

(2) The funding of public education for kindergarten through grade 12. The description of this purpose shall be written in cooperation with the state superintendent of public instruction.

(3) The funding for financial assistance to families of members on active duty in the armed forces of the United States and training for county and city veterans' service officers. The

1           description of this purpose shall be written in cooperation
2           with the Indiana department of veterans' affairs.

3           (e) The department shall interpret a designation on a return under 4 subsection (a) or (b) that is illegible or otherwise not reasonably
5 discernible to the department as if the designation had not been made.
